BARBADOS HIGH COMMISSION,
LONDON.

The High Commissioner for Barbados presents his compliments to His Excellency the Ambassador for Iceland and with reference to his note No. 31 P. 2 of 11th October, 1968 has the honour to inform His Excellency that the Government of Barbados has agreed to the conclusion, by an exchange of notes, of an agreement for the reciprocal abolition of visa requirements between Barbados and Iceland in the following terms:

1. Icelandic subjects holding valid Icelandic passports shall be free to enter Barbados and stay in that country for a period of up to three months without being required to obtain a visa.
2. Citizens of Barbados holding valid Barbadian passports shall be free to enter Iceland at any authorized border-crossing place and stay in that country for a period of up to three months without being required to obtain a visa. This period of three months shall be calculated from the date of entry into any Nordic State being a Party to the Convention of July 12, 1957 on the waiver of passport control at the intra-Nordic frontiers. Any sojourn in any of those States during the six months preceding the entry into any of those States from a non-Nordic State shall be included in the above period of three months.
3. It is understood that the waiver of visa requirements does not exempt Icelandic subjects and citizens of Barbados coming to Barbados and to Iceland respectively from the necessity of complying with the laws and regulations in force in Barbados and in Iceland respectively concerning the entry into and residence — temporary or permanent — in that country. They are not allowed to take employment or exercise any profession, paid or unpaid, without having obtained a work permit.
4. The authorities of each country reserve the right to refuse leave to enter or stay in the country to persons considered undesirable.
5. The present Agreement shall enter into force on 1st January 1969. Either Government may temporarily suspend the foregoing provisions in whole or in part for reasons of public order. Such suspensions shall be notified immediately to the other Government through Diplomatic channels.

The present Agreement may be denounced by either Government by notification in writing, the denunciation taking effect one month after the date of the notification.

The High Commissioner for Barbados wishes to inform His Excellency that His Excellency's acknowledgement of this note will constitute the conclusion of the Agreement between the Governments of Barbados and Iceland.

The High Commissioner for Barbados avails himself of this opportunity to renew to His Excellency the Ambassador for Iceland the assurance of his highest consideration.
